

CHRISTUS Health/Texas A&M

Corpus Christi, TX

Why CHRISTUS Health?

- Extremely friendly EM residency program with new ED & facilities on the beach
- Lots of social gatherings for residents, families, rotating students, and faculty
- High acuity patient population in an urban setting
- Truly unopposed: Do not share procedures or resuscitations
- EM Residents are senior residents on MICU and TICU services
- Extensive moonlighting opportunities

Contacts

Alainya Tomanec MD

Program Director

alainya.tomanec@christushealth.org

Ben Leeson, MD

John Herrick, DO

JD Cambron, DO

Assistant Program Directors

Debra Looper

Program Coordinator

Debra.Looper@christushealth.org

Chief Residents: ccemchiefs@gmail.com

Important Facts

Rotations include:

- Driscoll Children's Hospital
- CHRISTUS South
- One block in San Antonio in free furnished apartment along the Riverwalk

Pediatrics experience:

- Dedicated PEM blocks plus longitudinal pediatrics experience in all years, PICU in PGY2, and pediatric airway experience in all years
- PGY-2: PICU rotation

Electives

- Global Health
- Ultrasound
- Tactical EMS
- Wilderness Medicine in Coastal Texas
- For rotating medical students: ultrasound, wilderness medicine, and MICU

Ultrasound experience:

- PGY-1: mandatory ultrasound rotation
- PGY-3: Advanced ultrasound elective

Fellowship programs:

- No associated fellowships, but recent alumni have obtained competitive fellowships in Critical care, Ultrasound, EMS, Motorsports medicine, Admin, and toxicology

12

Residents per class

Level II

Trauma designation

Community

Program

125,000

Patients per year

Connect

- Twitter: @CCEMRP
- Instagram: @ccemrp
- ccemrp.com

