Government Relations Committee

REPORT

*Diana Fite, MD, FACEP
Chair, Government Relations Committee*

Those who have read these reports over the years are familiar with the TCEP Government Relation Committee's strong concerns about preserving the tort laws that passed in 2003, which brought so many more physicians, not to mention brought back liability insurance carriers...

Freestanding Emergency Departments: A Disruptive Innovation from the Lone Star State

REPORT

*Jennifer Rzadkowsli, DO
Cedric Dark, MD, MPH*

The Texas Freestanding Emergency Medical Care Facility (FEC) Licensing Act was enacted by the 84th legislature in 2009. This act licensed freestanding emergency departments (FSEDs) in Texas. It defined FSEDs as entities that are structurally separate and distinct from a hospital...

UTHSC at Houston Student Society of Emergency Medicine Update

REPORT

Max Goulas

For 2015-2016 the UTHSC at Houston Student Society of Emergency Medicine has 418 members on our mailing list, however more are expected to come once the class of 2019 joins up. SSEM is a very large student organization which meets about once a month to bring in faculty speakers or pannels as part of a blue book credit lecture series...
