TEXAS COLLEGE OF EMERGENCY PHYSICIANS

NEWSLETTER: JULY 2016

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

*Heather Owen, MD, FACEP
President*

The Summer is in full swing here in Texas, but there are no vacations for your TCEP Leaders! Last month, your Board and Leaders met in Dallas for a Strategic Planning Session. After several full days of hard work, we have developed a strategic plan for the next year! This year we are committed to...

Government Relations Committee

REPORT

*Diana Fite, MD, FACEP
Chair, Government Relations Committee*

Before we discuss the balanced billing issue, which we will all hear plenty about as we near the legislative session, let me share some good news that many members have not yet heard about! With now more than two hundred free standing ED's in Texas, many of our members are either owners or working full time or part time in one or more of them. Thanks to our work with the Texas Association of Freestanding Emergency Centers...

Baylor College of Medicine Emergency Medicine Interest Group: Filling in Big Shoes

Elias Kassir, Evan Strobelt, and Jared Mortus

The last year has been a transformative one for the Baylor College of Medicine Emergency Medicine Interest Group. The end of the 2015 academic year saw the graduation of many of our EMIG's most involved and well-known members, including Hashim Zaidi, Ashley Rider, Daniel Dos Santos, and Ronnie Ren. The end of this academic year promises much of the same...

Sam Ahn, Lauren Apgar, Joaquin Castillo Marroquin, Teresa Dunphy, Justin Haloot, Hiep-Huy Tran, Matthew Wise

At UNTHSC's Texas College of Osteopathic Medicine, we pride ourselves on being one of the largest and most active interprofessional clubs on campus. Much of our success has resulted from the exposure and resources that we have provided students as well as highly valued opportunities for skills training and volunteer work. Our goal is to introduce emergency medicine to our fellow students as an active, engaging specialty...
